An Address by Professor Richard Toye

Swansea born Richard Toye BA MPhil PhD (Cantab) FRHistS is a Professor of Modern History at Exeter University and a Churchill Fellow. Named Young Academic Writer of the Year by the Times Higher Education Magazine in 2007 he has written extensively on International and European history. The Welsh Association of Churchill Fellows operates under the aegis of the Churchill Memorial trust (Charity No 313952), a non-political body which grants British citizens Travelling Fellowships overseas, thereby equipping them on their return with knowledge and best practice for the benefit of others. Part of the Friends’ Saturday morning lecture series, the talk also features in the Association’s celebrations to mark Churchill’s life and legacy on the 50th anniversary of his death in 1965.

The admission charge for this event, to include post-lecture coffee/tea, and free parking at the University (a short distance from the National Museum) is £8 for Friends’ pre-paid bookings, £10 at the door on the day.
