A VISIT TO ST. CADOCS CHURCH , LLANCARFAN
WITH LUNCH AT FOX & HOUNDS WEDNESDAY 8TH JULY 2015

The Friends are invited to join the above event given by Madge O'Keefe. The church of St. Cadoc at Lllancarfan is in the heart of this small village in Vale of Glamorgan. The spacious church, which in the later Middle Ages belonged to Gloucester Abbey, contains a stoup and interesting remains of a rood screen, now adapted as a reredos.

In early 2008, architects discovered a medieval wall painting in the church under layers of whitewash. Now, after six years of restoration work, conservators have uncovered startlingly bold images of the seven deadly sins, a royal family, a ghoulish death figure - and what has been described as one of the largest and most spectacular tableaux of St George and the Dragon ever seen in a British church.

The easiest way to get to St. Cadoc's, Lllancarfan is from the signposted turning at Bonvilston, on the A48, the stretch of road between Cardiff and Cowbridge.

The programme for the day is as follows:

- 11.00 am. Group will arrive under their own steam and meet in Fox & Hounds Car Park to meet our Guide and assemble at St Cadocs Church for our talk.
- 1.00 am.approx. Return to Fox & Hounds for lunch and departure.

Unfortunately numbers have to be restricted to 30 people, with a minimum of 20 in order to make the project viable. The cost of the Study Day will be £20.00 p.p. and will include a set lunch at the Fox & Hounds, a donation to the church and expenses for the leaders

To join us please send your cheque made payable to 'Friends of the National Museum Wales' and completed form to; Dorn Swaffield, Lower House Barns, Michaelston-le-Pit, Dinas Powys, Vale of Glamorgan. CF64 4HE. Tel: 029 2051 3956. E-mails to "Dorn.swaffield@gmail.com" Should the visit be oversubscribed, a random selection of the applications will take place, and those who are unlucky may receive priority vouchers for a future event. Remember to enclose a stamped addressed envelope only if you have no E-Mail address or you want 'Priority Vouchers' for a future event.
