An illustrated talk by Professor Angela V. John
Behind the Legend: Port Talbot and the Making of Richard Burton

Professor Angela V John has been on the advisory board for the Richard Burton exhibition which runs from the 4th April until September 6th at the National Museum Wales so her talk will give us a lot of insight into the life and times of the actor Richard Burton.

Angela V. John is a historian and biographer, originally from Port Talbot but now living in Newport, Pembrokeshire. For some years she was Professor of History at the University of Greenwich, London but took early retirement in order to write full-time. She currently has an honorary professorship at Swansea University. One of her publications is 'The Actors' Crucible: Port Talbot and the Making of Burton, Hopkins, Sheen and All the Others'

To attend this talk please complete the form below by Thursday 23rd April and send with a cheque made out to the Friends of National Museum Wales to:
