

The Vulcan Hotel

This year's AGM will be followed by a talk by Dr. Dafydd William, Principal Curator, Historic Buildings.

He has been responsible for curating the re-building of The Vulcan Hotel at St Fagans and his talk will be called

The History of the Vulcan Hotel

The pub was built in 1853, dismantled by the Museum in 2012 and the plan is to reopen to the public in 2024. Come and listen to its story.

If you haven't visited St Fagans lately, it is well worth going just to see the Vulcan Hotel.

It will be followed by tea and coffee in the Oriel Suite.

Please let us know if you intend coming to the AGM and the talk. NO PAYMENT IS TAKEN FOR THIS EVENT but we would like to know the numbers for those attending for catering purposes, so please respond, preferably by email to: kathleen.jones@friendsmuseumwales.org.uk
