VISIT TO KELMSCOTT MANOR AND STOW-ON-THE-WOLD

Wednesday, 7th June, 2023

If you have visited Kelmscott Manor in Lechlade in the Cotswolds before, it is well worth visiting again. It is now furnished in Arts and Crafts style and was saved from dilapidation by a £4.3m. lottery grant in 2018. It was the idyllic rural retreat of William Morris who described it as a 'Heaven on Earth'. Morris was a hugely influential designer and polymath and his designs such as the furnishing fabric Strawberry Thief and his wallpaper design Willow Bough were undoubtedly inspired by his garden. Both designs live on today.

Stow-on-the-Wold is a delightful Cotswolds market town where you can visit a wonderful array of antique shops, art galleries and coffee houses, as well as a Medieval parish church, at your will.

Timetable for the day
