City of Wells & The Bishop's Palace

5th July 2023

Len Metcalfe & Heather Graves

On arriving in Wells, you will be able to visit the Cathedral built between 1175 and 1490 with its stunning West Front, Scissor Arches, the Astronomical Clock which is the second oldest medieval clock face in the world (1390), the Jesse window (1340), and the Saxon Font brought in from the earlier Saxon church where the Cloisters now stand. It is at least a thousand years old and still in use.

The Bishop's Palace has been the home of the Diocese of Bath and Wells for the last 800 years and the Hall and Chapel date from the 14th century. There are also 14 acres of gardens for you to enjoy.

There will be a market in Market Place on the day that you may wish to visit along with an array of coffee shops, cafes and restaurants.

At 2.15 we will all meet up outside the Bishop's Palace gates. There you will be given a ticket to enter the grounds and the palace.
