

Carwyn James, Rugby and Beyond
A talk by Alun Gibbard
Saturday April 6th 2024 at 10.30am
Reardon Smith Lecture Theatre
Amgueddfa Cymru, Cathays Park, Cardiff

Alun Gibbard the Cardiff based, award winning author spent 3 years researching Carwyn James' life. In this talk he shares fascinating insights into the rich and complex life of the man who lived his life 'Into the wind'.

Carwyn James - a man so many know about but nobody knows who he really was. We think we know him as a rugby man and yes, his rugby achievements did have a world wide impact and changed the game. But as his biographer Alun Gibbard argues, we do Carwyn a huge injustice if we limit him to rugby only. He was a man of literature, a broadcaster and yes, even a spy!
And there's more to him than just his successes too. He was a tortured soul who faced personal battles and died too young, before he was able to find answers.

The fee to attend which includes tea/coffee and biscuits is £10 served as usual in the Oriel Suite after the talk
