

The City of Bath
Wednesday 5th June 2024

There are many interesting places to visit in Bath, the Abbey which has been the site of Christian worship for over 1,200 years. The Roman Baths with their colourful costumed characters, the Herschel Museum where you can discover astronomy, the Frankenstein Museum and neighbouring Jane Austen Centre in Queen Street and No 1 Royal Crescent where you can experience life in a real Georgian house. Victoria Park and Sydney Gardens and not forgetting the Pulteney Bridge. There are numerous restaurants and cafes where you may wish to enjoy lunch.
