

What do we do?

We raise substantial funds in order to support and promote the National Museum of Wales and its seven sites.

Over recent years we have supported projects including:

- an initial sum to assist with the redevelopment of the National Slate Museum in Llanberis;
- the restoration of the portrait by Manet of Monsieur Jules Dejoux;
- supporting the trainee gardener in St Fagans;
- supporting 'digital toddler time' – activities for young children on the Museum website ... and many more.
