A VISIT TO THE HAY-ON-WYE LITERARY FESTIVAL
TUESDAY 28TH MAY 2019

After last years successful trip we again offer the opportunity to visit the Hay Festival by private coach. The drop off point allows easy accessibility to the site avoiding the drive and trouble parking. There is no charge for entrance to the festival site and you will have to buy tickets only for the events you wish to see. You can do this by selecting the events you wish to attend and calling the box office on 01497-822 629. Alternatively many people may want to buy tickets on-line at <https://www.hayfestival.com> Tickets range from £5.00 to £40.00 and there are normally no concessions. If you do not book for a specific event note there are some free events and workshops, but these may have a limited capacity so please check event listings for details. N.B. The Full Program will be available at the end of March.

The festival field has the necessary facilities to make your day enjoyable and interesting even if you have not booked for an event and you might find some events that you can book on arrival.

We are told that there should not be too much mud on the field as all venues are just a brief walk apart linked by covered and carpeted boardwalks. Please wear comfortable footwear.

Tickets can also be booked by post at: Hay Festival Box Office, 25 Lion Street, Hay-on-Wye.

- 8.15 am. Depart Wild Gardens Road, Roath Park.
