Professor Laura Mc Allister CBE, FRSA, FLSW
Will give a talk entitled

Leading the Way

Professor Laura Mc Allister is Professor of Public Policy and the Governance of Wales at Cardiff University's Wales Governance Centre, an expert on devolution, Welsh politics and elections, and gender. Laura was also Co-chair with Rowan Williams of the Independent Commission on the Constitutional Future of Wales. They completed an in-depth analysis of three options for Wales - Enhanced devolution; Wales in a federal UK and an independent Wales. A mammoth task.

Laura is known to many of us for her knowledge and participation in the field of sport particularly in promoting womens' football. She is a former Wales international football player and captain and is now Vice President of UEFA and Deputy Chair of its Women's Football Committee.

She does however have expertise in many other fields and has been awarded honorary degrees and fellowships from five Welsh universities.
What made her change from one organisation to another and reach the top in all of them?

Come to the talk and follow her story.
